Dut & About

Recently, our residents embarked on a barge trip organised by Seagull Trust Cruises from Ratho. We took six residents accompanied by three staff members. The trip offered residents a serene journey along the Union Canal. It was an opportunity to observe local wildlife, engage with informative volunteers, and enjoy a picturesque picnic on board. We have booked additional trips in the coming months, with residents expressing a request of the residents. They are excited about the summer outings and events

Birthday Celebrations

Birthday Wishes

Murial, Gail, Karen, Betty, Jean, and Ena celebrated their birthdays with staff and family. Our chefs prepared delicious cakes for their special days.

desire to return for future excursions.

Celebration Time

We celebrated Mother's Day at our home by organising an afternoon tea for the residents. We decorated the lounge and dining area with banners and flowers, adding thoughtful details to the table decorations. Our chef baked delicious cakes for the event. Our residents had a memorable day sharing stories with one another and the staff.
